Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, "Do you own a car," the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5:

Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

 Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

	Incapa	city.

I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

☐ Disability.

My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

☐ Active duty.

I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name a case number (if known).  For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount. # Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy, and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts. Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7:	Liquidation
 $245	filing fee
$75	administrative fee
+ $15	trustee surcharge
$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A–1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A–2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form —the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A–2). The calculations on the form— sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

$1,167 filing fee

+ $550 administrative fee $1,717 total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans.

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft,

debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,

most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to: http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from: http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to: http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/ BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCredit AndDebtCounselors.aspx.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list. Case 17-10690 Doc 1-2 Filed 04/04/17 Entered 04/04/17 16:13:02 Desc petition Page 44 of 49

Bankruptcy Legal Services Agreement

This is an agreement Vasile Boldea (the Client) and the LAW OFFICES OF DAVID FREYDIN, P.C., a debt relief agency that helps people file bankruptcy under the Bankruptcy Code, by which the Client agrees to pay for these services in the following manner:

The fees in this contract are based on the information given by the Client in the initial consultation. After reasonable investigation, as required by law, if the Law Firm determines that the information is substantially different, then the Law Firm retains the right to withdraw from this contract. If the Law Firm determines that the information is substantially different then the Law Firm may offer a new contract at a different rate or may refuse representation in total.

Based on the information provided in the initial consultation the Client agrees to pay the Law Firm $1500 as a "Basic Flat Fee". The "Basic Flat Fee" does not include the cost of Personal Financial Management Instructional Courses (Debtor Education), the cost of Credit Counseling or any service not specifically listed in this contract. Part of the calculation that goes into the fee amount is based on the ability to file multiple cases as once. This is normally done at the end of the month. If the Debtor requires that the case be filed before the end of the month the Law Office may request an additional fee. If the Client sees fit to sign a new attorney-client agreement with the Law Firm for services to file and/ or prepare a new bankruptcy filing then this agreement shall be no longer be valid and the new one will control, unless the new contract for bankruptcy services specifically states otherwise. If the new attorney-client agreement is for any other service besides preparing and or filing a new bankruptcy filing then this agreement shall remain valid.

The flat fee shall apply only to cases that have been filed with the court. If the services of the Law Firm are terminated either by the requirements set by the Law Firm or by the Client then all funds provided to the Law Firm may be applied to work completed by the Law Firm in accordance with the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct Rules 1.16(a) (4) and (e) based on the regular hourly rate.

The "Basic Flat Fee" covers the following services: A) preparation and filing of a Voluntary Petition for Chapter 7 Bankruptcy with no amendments; B) attendance at the first meeting with the trustee scheduled by the court and C) the Law Firm will provide one copy of the filed Bankruptcy Petition and the Discharge of Debtor if applicable. If the Law Firm or the Client decide to terminate this agreement then any funds provided to the Law Office by the Client shall not be refundable to the extent that the Law Firm earns them and the Law Firm can hold the Client owing for any work completed in accordance with the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct Rules 1.16(a) (4) and (e) based on the regular hourly rate. The debtor must pay for any costs incurred for filing fees or the cost of "reasonable investigation" as provided by law.

The "Basic Flat Fee" only covers those services specifically listed above. All other services are to be provided at the rate of $395 ("regular hourly rate") per hour billed in 0.2 hour increments. Support staff time at $95 per hour billed in 0.2 hour increments. While the petition is being prepared, if the Client requests substantial changes to the petition (e.g. changing the case from a single person to a joint filing) or if the filing is delayed so that the petition needs to be revised, then the Law Firm will impose a additional fee based on the hourly rate for the change, however, the charge will be no less than $475.

Certain aspects of the services provided may be completed by clerical staff or by licensed and qualified counsel retained by the Law Firm to aid in the efficient and competent completion of the services as contracted. LAW OFFICES OF DAVID FREYDIN, P.C., may not provide all of the services in the contract personally. The attorneys may not be associates or of counsel to the Law Firm. Other attorneys may be used based on necessity. All attorney work will be billed at the same hourly rate set out in this contract regardless of the compensation agreement between the performing attorney and the Law Firm.

The Client authorizes the Law Firm to begin work necessary for bankruptcy filing. The Client authorizes the Law Firm to respond to phone calls from creditors and provide information regarding the preparation and subsequent filing of the bankruptcy. The Client agrees to cooperate with the attorney in the preparation of the Bankruptcy Petition and provide complete, accurate and truthful information for each and every question. The Client must respond promptly to all correspondence with the Law Firm and provide updated address and telephone numbers. The Client agrees to provide complete disclosure and accurate replacement value for all assets.

The Law Firm is authorized to immediately withdraw from representing the Client under any of the following circumstances: A) the Client fails to cooperate with the Law Firm in the preparation and implementation of the Client's case; B) the Client fails to pay fees and costs as agreed; C) the Client makes misrepresentations or misleading statements to the Law Firm; D) the Client delays filing for two (2) months from signing this agreement without making arrangements with the Law Firm; E) the Client delays filing until circumstances change which affect the bankruptcy law or the process of filing; F) the Client fails to cooperate in the process of preparing the bankruptcy or pursuing the Bankruptcy Petition or G) the Law Firm feels compelled to withdraw based on law, court order or ethical reasons.

All payment to the Law Firm shall constitute an "advance payment retainer". An advance payment retainer consists of a present payment to the Law Firm in exchange for the commitment to provide legal services in the future. Ownership of this retainer passes to the lawyer immediately upon payment. There exists the option to place funds provided to the Law Firm into a classic security retainer. However, this Attorney Client agreement does not provide for a classic security retainer due to the nature of the bankruptcy proceeding. Funds held under the classic security retainer may be subject to garnishment by creditors and could be seen as an asset by the bankruptcy court.

All documents and notes provided to the Law Firm may be destroyed at the Law Firm's discretion once the Law Firm has completed its representation of the client. The Law Office will impose a charge for replacing lost documents or sending copies of documents. The Client understands that in a Chapter 7 bankruptcy if they receive any substantial windfall within 180 days of filing they must report these amounts to the Chapter 7 Trustee and that these amounts may be taken by the Trustee to pay the debts listed in the bankruptcy.

The Client agrees to keep attorney informed of changes of address, phone number, etc. during the course of the Client's representation by the Law Firm. The Law Firm is not responsible for omissions or errors resulting from information from credit reports, regardless of whether the reports are obtained for the Client by the Law Firm. The Client is responsible for checking his/her petition at the time of signing to make sure that all information is correct and understood, and that all the creditors have been listed.

The Client acknowledges that the attorney is relying on the Client's representations as to the existence of assets and debts, the secured or unsecured nature of these debts as well as answer to all other questions on the petition. The Client understands that the Law Firm will not investigate the possible existence of existing liens against the Client's property or person. The Client understands that if any such liens pre-date the filing of the Bankruptcy Petition, it may not be possible to avoid such a lien and the Law Firm makes no representation that any such lien can be avoided. The Client understands that the attorney will not undertake any investigation to determine whether the creditors are secured or un-secured, but will rely upon representations from the Client as to any such security interests. The Client is responsible for paying for any costs incurred the preparation or prosecution of their case. The Client grants permission to the Law Firm to incur reasonable expenses on behalf of the Client towards the preparation and prosecution of this case for which the Client will be responsible.

In the event that this contract does not accurately reflect the representations by the attorney then it is important the Client not sign these documents until the corrections have been made. The Client acknowledges that no guarantees or assurances have been made by the Law Firm as to the disposition of the petition for bankruptcy. All comments by the attorney are expressions of opinion based upon experience as well as representations made by the Client. All expressions relative thereto are matters of opinion only.

If the Client sees fit to sign a new attorney-client agreement with the Law Firm for services to file and/ or prepare a new bankruptcy filing then this agreement shall be no longer be valid and the new one will control, unless the new contract for bankruptcy services specifically states otherwise. If the new attorney-client agreement is for any other service besides preparing and or filing a new bankruptcy filing then this agreement shall remain valid.

The Client has been informed that certain debts are not dischargeable in bankruptcy. The Law Firm can only offer an opinion on the dischargeability of debt based on the representations of the Client. This contract does not retain the Law Firm to investigate or litigate the determination of dischargability of a debt. The Client understands that Law Firm can make no representations as to the effect of bankruptcy filing on the creditor or credit reports of the Client, Client's spouse, or any co-debtor. The Law Firm is not retained to correct errors of credit reporting agencies. The Client has been informed that bankruptcy could have an effect on immigration, criminal, family law and other non-bankruptcy proceedings and that the Client should consult with an attorney to advise and assist them in these matters.

The Client acknowledges that they are solely responsible for the completion of both the credit counseling and the financial management courses required by the Bankruptcy Code. The Client has acknowledges that failure to complete the course in the set time could result in the case being closed without discharge of debt.

The Client has read this agreement and agrees with its terms and representations.
